

Designing curricula to support students' mental wellbeing

The student mental wellbeing cluster ran a series of professional development events with participation from academic and professional support staff and students. Curricula design can support student mental wellbeing through...

Staff role modelling wellbeing

Designing flexible and responsive curricula

Compassionate assessment features

A holistic approach to assessments

Signposting students to support services

Co-creating curricula with students

